

NAC Executive Committee Summary

December 2025

Below is a summary of actions taken by the NAC Executive Committee during its December 2025 meeting.

HBCU National Baseball Invitational

The NAIA National Administrative Council (NAC) has formally approved the HBCU National Baseball Invitational™ as an approved postseason competition. As a result of this designation, the HBCU National Baseball Invitational™ is recognized in the same manner as NCCAA postseason championships.

Participation in the HBCU National Baseball Invitational™ is therefore exempt from NAIA Frequency of Play limitations and does not count toward the NAIA 24-week season. NAIA member institutions competing in the Invitational may do so without impact to seasonal limits, consistent with existing NAIA policy governing approved postseason events.
